AT PEACE INSTITUTE.

THE RICH ART GALLERY AND ITS CONTRIBUTORS.

The Young Ladies Who Won Distinctions During the Session -- The Commencement Concert Last Night.

Among the announcements from Peace Institute this week was one stating that the art studio would be open on Tuesday from 9 a. m. to 6 p. m.

Yesterday there were a great many visitors to that gallery, and it proved to be a place of great beauty and interest.

The art exhibit for this year is, perhaps, not quite so extensive as it has been, but it may be said that the quality and finish of the work shown has never been equalled before. The results of the session's study and work is a credit to the institution; and through all the art works there appeared evidence of the superior instruction and training imparted to the young lady pupils by Miss Buck, the very talented teacher in the Art Department.

The Contributors.

The observer in the studio noticed that the following young ladies had contributed to its beauties :

Miss Lily Bell- Four oil paintings, in-cluding a beautiful floral screen, and a superb coast scene in eastern Carolina: Miss Aunie Burwell, decorated, set of chin; very handsome.

Yesterday Mr. W. H. McCullers, of Clayton, showed a splendid stalk of cotton to his friends here. It was well developed, healthy and strong, twelve and a half inches high and had three squares. Good Advertising, or Rather the Good of Advertising. Last Sunday morning we stated in the papers that we would open near our Fayet'eville street door a new and special department for the sale of certain lines of dress goods, and it has been wonderful to us, ourselves, the success that has attended this announcement.

Our people do read advertisements. In this connection we beg to state that this special "decided bargain sale" of these dress goods will be continued, and that several attractive additions will be made to it. Come and see them. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.
